

Hello,

My name is Ryan Reichert!

I am responsible for the 1000 or so DailyJolt stickers you see all over campus.

What would one thousand stickers on one thousand doors look like?

Pretty Trashy!

Word of mouth wasn't working, so I thought I'd post stickers all over campus to spread the word!

If you want to put up stickers all over campus about anything, just ask residence life for approval! With your help, we can make the Kent State Campus look as trashy as ever!
